WELCOME MESSAGE

It is with great pleasure that we extend a warm welcome to all of you for the 1st Biomarkers & Precision Oncology Forum 2023, held in conjunction with the 7th International BRCA Forum. This year, we are excited to present a hybrid event, combining in-person and virtual participation, taking place on the 21st and 22nd of July, 2023 at the esteemed Goodwood Park Hotel in Singapore.

On behalf of the organizing committee,

Dr. Shaheenah Dawood, Dr. Shona Nag, and Dr. Zhang Zewen—we are honored to have you join us for this exceptional gathering. Our collective aim is to provide an enriching experience that fosters collaboration, knowledge sharing, and innovation.

The Biomarkers & Precision Oncology Forum 2023 and iBRCAf conference showcases a carefully curated two-day program designed to explore the forefront of precision oncology and related fields. Our program will delve into Precision Oncology Liquid Biopsy, Germline Genetics, Integrating IO Therapy for Early and Advanced LC, Targeted Therapy and Lung Cancer, Targeting the RET Pathway and Molecular Tumor Boards

We firmly believe that meaningful collaborations and knowledge sharing are the cornerstones of progress in our field.

Once again, welcome to the Biomarkers & Precision Oncology Forum 2023.

Let us come together to explore, innovate, and shape the future of oncology care.
